

Cultural heritage of women and entrepreneurship and Micro credit for Estonian women entrepreneurs

The project ended in June 2013, however the network continues, see www.womenculture.eu.

In January 17-19, 2014 participants from the microcredit project in Estonia visited us

Friday, January 17

Arrival in Stockholm by ferry from Tallin

14.30 Visit to Gränna museum, www.grennamuseum.se, meet with Birgitta

16.00 Visiting women entrepreneurs in Gränna, ecological yarn and wool shop – Syster Lyster, www.systerlyster.se - Hanne Faerch, designer and shop owner

Shop and production of knäcke (hardbread)

– Fiket, www.fiket.se, Sussi Zackrisson

Shop with linen dresses, Countryline www.countryline.se - Helena Gustner, designer and shop owner

18.00 Afterwork in Gränna at restaurant

Matlust, www.matlust.se

Overnight accommodation at Wiredaholm,

www.wiredaholm.se

Saturday, January 18

Visiting women entrepreneurs

09.30 Dolls´ museum,

www.dockskapshuset.se, webshop

www.torparlycka.se - Christine Kainu –

10.30-12.00 Workshop at the Yellow House, www.gulahusetivireda.se (Maud Yngvesson and Helen Karlsson)

14.00 Aneby, Study Circle Association and lecture on Transition Sweden (Transition Towns network), www.transitionnetwork.org, - transition into sustainable living, building of networks for transition locally (Eva Hildorsson)

15.00 Aneby – Soap making (Tina Johansson) www.tvaleriet.se

16.00 Discussion about future wishes, intentions with network members, Aneby, at the Adult Study Association

Sirje Vällman presents ideas from the Estonian network about future cooperation

Birgitta Segerdahl presents ideas from the Swedish network

Cold buffé at the Association and afterwards dancing event in Tranås.

Sunday, January 19

Return to Tallin by ferry from Stockholm

Estonian participants

Elle Allik: Project leader LEADER, book-keeping and advisory company

Reena Curphey: Company in design of felted and knitted products

Kerttu Langinen: Book-keeping company and advisor; singing in choir and folkdance Aivar Niinemägi: Head of NGO Pandivere Development and Incubation Centre (PDIC).

Organising courses in business development, holding seminars, organising study tours for business developers and NGO´s. Organising fairs and co-ordinates international activities.

Sirje Vällmann: Company (advisor within adult education, courses and projects).

Rein Karem: Transport company, chauffeur.

Swedish participants at the buffé:

Ann Edlund, Anette Forssander

Louise Jansson, Tina Johansson

Helen Karlsson, Madeleine Magnfält

Bodil Nordgren, Birgitta Segerdahl

Sonja Torstensson, Christina Vikhed

and Maud Yngvesson